Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-5, 7-8, 10-22, 26, 28-32, 43-44, 46, 49, 51, 53-63, and 90-95 are allowed.

Claims 1-5, 7-8, 10-22, 26, 28-32, 43-44, 46, 49, 51, 53-63, and 90-95 are allowable over the prior art of record, none of the prior art whether together singularly or in combination to teach the claimed combination as recited. The closest reference No. 2004/0024644 does not disclose or suggest the improvement of the instant application comprises routing the product through the carrier's logistics network to a first receiver so long as the determining step has not established that the environmental condition has transcended the limit and rerouting the product through the carrier's logistics network to a second receiver, different from the first receiver, if the determining step establishes that the environment condition has transcended the limit wherein the environmental sensor associated with the product comprising a visual indicator activated automatically by the environmental sensor if the environmental sensor determines the environmental condition has transcended a limit for the product, the visual indicator visually alerting a handler that the product is to be rerouted to a second receiver by changing its visual appearance without requiring the handler to read data or text from the visual indicator to determine that the environmental condition has transcended the limit.

Reference '644 does not teach rerouting step based on the determining step that the environmental condition has transcended a limit via the visual indicator associated with the product alerting the handler by changing its visual appearance when the environmental condition has transcended the limit in transporting a product via a carrier.
